The Cattery has today received the cat(s) above and are committed to accommodate and take care of it/them. Should your cat(s) become ill we shall immediately contact you in the first place. In the second place we shall contact the ICE contact. In case of illness/injury the cat(s) must be retrieved by its owner, or by a person appointed by the owner. If the owner or ICE contact cannot be reached, the Cattery will contact the veterinary. The owner will then be charged for veterinary care and any extra given care given by the Cattery following the veterinary advice according to the price list (see website)

The Owner agrees to retrieve the cat(s) on the agreed day below. If the cat(s) are not retrieved on agreed day, the owner will be charged 3x daily rate for every commenced day. If the cat(s) are not retrieved within 7 days, the Cattery have the right to proceed with the cat(s) in the way the Cattery find best. The owner of the cat(s) will be invoiced all incurred charges.

The Cattery shall be released from all responsibility for any illness, accident, theft, fire, escape and/or any other damage that the cat(s) may incur during the stay.

The confirmed boarding period will be charged even if the cat(s) are retrieved earlier than agreed.

Booking policy: Less than 14 days before arrival 50% will be charged for the booked period. Less than 30 days before arrival 25% will be charged.
